

WHO'S MY BO BO?

The good folks at Dickson Watch & Jewellery gave 50 L'Officiel readers an exclusive sneak and the opportunity to try on Qeelin Jewellery's Bo Bo collection at its Paragon flagship. Fashioned out of precious metals such as platinum and sparkling baubles that run the gamut of diamonds, sapphires, rubies and jade, these newly minted Bo Bo bears are cute to a fault, in incarnations of pirates, superbears, etc. There's one for every palate. Designer Dennis Chan was also at hand to demystify the intrinsic link between the Chinese culture's mysticism with contemporary jewellery design.
